RESEARCH NOTES

Alaska's 2024 HB 251 (AS 17.20.332-17.20.338) dramatically expanded cottage food. The old 18 AAC 31.012 rule (limited to $25,000/yr, nonperishable, no home address required) still technically exists as an alternative for producers who prefer not to disclose their home address. A state business license from AK Dept. of Commerce is required. Kenai Peninsula Borough is a large rural borough in south-central Alaska. Prohibited: homemade dairy products, seafood, oil rendered from animal fat, alcohol, cannabis, and game meat. Perishable foods cannot be sold via third-party online food hub marketplaces.
