IMPORTANT — NOT LEGAL ADVICE

This report compiles publicly-available statutes, regulations, and county zoning rules into a research reference. It is not legal advice and is provided without warranty as to accuracy, completeness, or current applicability.

Cottage food law changes frequently. Counties may amend zoning, health departments may issue new permits, and state legislatures may update statutes after the publication date shown above.

Always verify rules directly with your state department of health/agriculture and your county health and planning offices before relying on them for any business or regulatory decision. Consult a licensed attorney for advice specific to your situation.

RESEARCH NOTES

Kansas Great-tier state. Lyon County seat is Emporia (pop. ~24,000), a mid-size city. County has active Planning & Zoning department with documented home occupation section (Section 20-10). City of Emporia and Lyon County share metropolitan planning area with separate zoning contacts. Rezoning process requires monthly application deadlines with Planning Board and County Commissioners approval. Home occupations regulated to maintain residential character per county FAQ. State cottage food law (K.S.A. §65-657) is primary food safety framework; county zoning adds home occupation layer.
