IMPORTANT — NOT LEGAL ADVICE

This report compiles publicly-available statutes, regulations, and county zoning rules into a research reference. It is not legal advice and is provided without warranty as to accuracy, completeness, or current applicability.

Cottage food law changes frequently. Counties may amend zoning, health departments may issue new permits, and state legislatures may update statutes after the publication date shown above.

Always verify rules directly with your state department of health/agriculture and your county health and planning offices before relying on them for any business or regulatory decision. Consult a licensed attorney for advice specific to your situation.

RESEARCH NOTES

Kansas Great-tier state. Miami County is a growing county southeast of Kansas City metro (pop. ~34,237). County has active Planning Department with documented home occupation regulations (Article 20 of Zoning Regulations). Key finding: commercial/business activity in residential districts is prohibited except for qualifying home occupations. Countryside and Agricultural zones allow certain home occupations as common uses. Conditional use permits available for some commercial activities. Zoning verification available for $100 fee. Full county zoning code available via codepublishing.com. State cottage food law (K.S.A. §65-657) is primary food safety framework.
