IMPORTANT — NOT LEGAL ADVICE

This report compiles publicly-available statutes, regulations, and county zoning rules into a research reference. It is not legal advice and is provided without warranty as to accuracy, completeness, or current applicability.

Cottage food law changes frequently. Counties may amend zoning, health departments may issue new permits, and state legislatures may update statutes after the publication date shown above.

Always verify rules directly with your state department of health/agriculture and your county health and planning offices before relying on them for any business or regulatory decision. Consult a licensed attorney for advice specific to your situation.

BEFORE YOU SELL FROM THIS ADDRESS

- ☐ 1. Menu — Confirm each product under Oregon cottage food rules (county cannot expand a state ban).
- ☐ 2. Pickup & zoning — Home occupation and porch pickup cells above; HOA/lease may still block customer traffic.
- ☐ 3. Local tax / license — Business license or sales tax certificate if your city/parish requires it (common even with no state food permit).
- ☐ 4. Training — Food handler or state registration before market day.
- ☐ 5. Labels — Disclaimer, allergens, ingredients, net quantity, producer info.
- ☐ 6. Call if unclear — County health and planning for your exact address.

LABEL FIELDS TO INCLUDE

- ☐ Product name · producer name · address (or allowed alternative)
- ☐ Ingredients by weight · major allergens · net weight/quantity

INDIRECT SALES

Limited (see notes) — Direct sales to end users are permitted in any manner including online, mail, and at events. Sales to retailers (including coffee shops but not restaurants) are permitted if the retailer agrees to store/display the foods separately and clearly indicate they are homemade and not prepared in an inspected food establishment. Sales to institutions (restaurants, schools, hospitals, caterers, day care centers, nursing homes, correctional facilities) are prohibited. A Domestic Kitchen Bakery License (~$50/year) is required for establishments wishing to sell to retailers under licensed status rather than using the residential-dwelling exemption. The department may provide a unique identification number for use on labels. Annual records must be maintained for 3 years.
