RESEARCH NOTES

Allegheny County follows PA state baseline (unlike Philadelphia County which is excluded from the LFE program). The PA LFE registration requires: local zoning approval, initial on-site inspection, and $35/year fee. PDA processes applications within 15 business days. Key difference from Philadelphia: Allegheny County operators can use a home kitchen — they don't need NSF/ANSI equipment in a commercially zoned property. Cities of McKeesport, Penn Hills, and Pittsburgh may have their own additional rules.
