IMPORTANT — NOT LEGAL ADVICE

This report compiles publicly-available statutes, regulations, and county zoning rules into a research reference. It is not legal advice and is provided without warranty as to accuracy, completeness, or current applicability.

Cottage food law changes frequently. Counties may amend zoning, health departments may issue new permits, and state legislatures may update statutes after the publication date shown above.

Always verify rules directly with your state department of health/agriculture and your county health and planning offices before relying on them for any business or regulatory decision. Consult a licensed attorney for advice specific to your situation.

Natrona County Home Occupation Permit requirement (confirmed via third-party research); Wyoming Food Freedom Act §11-49-103.

RESEARCH NOTES

Wyoming Food Freedom Act (§11-49-101 through §11-49-104) is one of the most permissive in the nation, allowing even TCS foods from home kitchens. State law expressly exempts cottage foods from state licensure, permitting, and inspection. However, Natrona County and City of Casper have home occupation permit requirements confirmed via business licensing guide research. The City of Casper Municipal Code includes zoning/home occupation restrictions. No specific cottage food carve-out from local permitting confirmed. $250,000 annual revenue cap and 250,000-unit production cap apply at state level. Confidence: medium (state law confirmed, local home occupation permit existence confirmed via third-party source but not directly from county .gov).

State context — Wyoming cottage food law

Natrona County's rules sit on top of Wyoming's state cottage food framework. The state law sets the floor — counties can add but cannot remove protections.

STATUTE

INDIRECT SALES

Yes — Wyoming's Food Freedom Act allows considerably broader indirect sales than most states. Non-potentially hazardous foods, eggs, and dairy products may be sold through third-party vendors (retail shops, grocery stores) as long as the sale complies with the Act. The third-party seller must inform consumers that the food is not certified, licensed, or inspected, and non-potentially hazardous foods must be displayed separately from licensed products with a label stating 'this food was made in a home kitchen, is not regulated or inspected and may contain allergens.' Potentially hazardous homemade foods (except eggs/dairy) must be sold by the producer or designated agent only. A 'designated agent' may also facilitate transactions including marketing, transport, storage, and delivery without taking ownership of the product.
