Zoning / home occupation

Conditional. Cassia County is a mid-size south-central Idaho agricultural county. Home occupations in residential/agricultural zones in unincorporated areas are generally allowed as accessory uses, typically requiring a home occupation permit. Business must be secondary to residential use, operated by a resident, no exterior commercial signage, limited customer traffic. Contact Cassia County Planning & Zoning at (208) 878-0367 for specific requirements.

Health

No. No routine inspection. South Central Public Health District (serving Cassia County) may investigate upon complaint.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Idaho cottage food allows direct sales to consumers; home pickup is permitted. Delivery to consumers is permitted. No mail order or internet sales under state law.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

Health districts permit food establishments. Idaho cottage food is a home exemption. A commissary is a food establishment permitted by the local public health district.
