Zoning / home occupation

Yes. Jackson County zoning regulations define home occupation as use conducted by family members residing in the dwelling, incidental to dwelling use. In residential districts: home occupations must take place within principal dwelling; one sign no greater than 16 sq ft; no more than one employee and one assistant; no display or stock-in-trade on premises; no retail or wholesale on premises except products prepared on premises; no outdoor display or storage; no loud mechanical equipment. Application required with Public Development Director approval; occupational tax license may also be required. On lots of 80,000 sq ft or more, accessory building up to 280 sq ft may be used. Up to two home occupations per dwelling permitted. Deliveries limited to USPS or commercial parcel service, max 10/month by commercial carrier.

Health

Upon-complaint. Consumer complaint or illness investigation

Business license

Yes

Pickup / delivery

Direct delivery to consumer permitted in-state; on-site pickup allowed; deliveries must use off-street parking

If you rent a commissary kitchen

KDA licenses food establishments. Kansas cottage food is an exemption from a food-establishment license. Selling from a commissary typically requires a KDA food establishment or food processing license.
