Zoning / home occupation

Varies. No county-specific home occupation ordinance identified for Hancock County. State law requires annual $50 registration with CHFS Food Safety Branch (form DFS-250) before selling. Operators should contact the Hancock County planning/zoning office and county judge-executive to confirm whether a local home occupation permit or business license is also required.

Health

No. Cabinet for Health and Family Services may inspect annually at discretion, or upon complaint/mislabeling report. No routine pre-approval inspection required.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct-to-consumer only. Permitted venues: home (on-premises pickup), farmers markets, certified roadside stands, community events, fairs, festivals, and personal delivery within Kentucky. Online orders allowed if fulfilled by in-state pickup or personal delivery. No wholesale to restaurants or retail stores. No mail/common-carrier shipping.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

Local health departments permit food service. Kentucky cottage food / home-based processor paths do not replace a food-service permit. A commissary is permitted by the local health department.
