HOW THIS PLACE WORKS

This is a city or town permit, not a county one. Massachusetts abolished county government in most of the state. A residential kitchen permit is issued by the city or town Board of Health (for example Cambridge, Lowell, or Newton), not by the county. This packet still includes the state cottage-food pages. Call the Board of Health for the city or town on your address.

Where to file

State

Massachusetts registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: Yes. Massachusetts residential kitchens are treated as food establishments, so permitted operators may sell at any venue within the state including restaurants and retail stores, without the wholesale restriction that most cottage food laws impose. Mail order and catering are prohibited. Local boards of health administer permits and may impose additional restrictions.

Statute: 105 CMR 590.009\(D\)

Zoning / home occupation

Yes. Massachusetts residential kitchen operations are regulated by local boards of health. In Franklin County, each town has its own board of health that issues permits. No county-wide permit; each municipality administers separately.

Health

Yes. Annual inspection required for residential kitchen permit renewal

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct sales only; no mail order or internet sales (MA prohibits mail order under residential kitchen permit)

If you rent a commissary kitchen

A residential kitchen permit is not a food-establishment commissary. Massachusetts residential kitchens are treated as food establishments by the city or town Board of Health. A rented commissary is a different food establishment at that board, not a home kitchen.

This file is the home-kitchen path. A rented kitchen uses a different permit. Ask the kitchen manager which license they expect, then call the local health office.
