Where to file

State

New Jersey registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Cottage food products may only be delivered or relinquished at: the operator's home (not for onsite consumption), the consumer's NJ home, a NJ farmers market or other permitted NJ location. Products cannot be sold to wholesale establishments, retail food establishments, or shipped out of state. Online and phone order-taking is allowed as an ancillary activity, but physical delivery must occur in New Jersey person-to-person or at permitted locations. Charitable bake sales remain exempt under separate provisions.

Zoning / home occupation

Yes. New Jersey requires local zoning board approval as prerequisite to state permit. Camden County has 37 municipalities, each with its own zoning board. Contact local municipal zoning office.

Health

No. No kitchen inspection required under NJ cottage food law

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct sales to consumers only. $50,000 annual sales cap. Approved foods list only. Online sales and delivery within NJ. No wholesale.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

Local health departments license retail food. New Jersey cottage food is a state permit for home kitchens. A commissary or restaurant is a retail food establishment licensed by the local health department. Wholesale is a separate CEOHS license.
