Where to file

State

North Carolina registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: Yes. Home processors may sell to retail stores, restaurants, and directly to consumers. Sales at farmers markets are permitted. Labels are required for wholesale and packaged self-service retail; direct hand-to-consumer sales (e.g., from home or at events) may be exempt from affixed labels if ingredient info is available on request. NC requires annual home kitchen inspection, which is unusual among no-cap states.

Zoning / home occupation

Varies. No specific Henderson County home occupation permit requirements found for cottage food. NCDA&CS home processor registration is the primary regulatory requirement. Local zoning may require home occupation permits. Contact Henderson County Planning or Hendersonville city planning.

Health

Yes. Annual inspection by NCDA&CS Food and Drug Protection Division required.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

North Carolina allows direct and indirect sales (retail stores, restaurants). No sales cap. Shelf-stable only.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

NCDA or the local health department, depending on the food. North Carolina home processors register with NCDA. A commissary used as a food service kitchen is typically permitted by the local health department; a food manufacturing plant is NCDA. Ask the kitchen which license they operate under.
