Where to file

State

North Carolina registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: Yes. Home processors may sell to retail stores, restaurants, and directly to consumers. Sales at farmers markets are permitted. Labels are required for wholesale and packaged self-service retail; direct hand-to-consumer sales (e.g., from home or at events) may be exempt from affixed labels if ingredient info is available on request. NC requires annual home kitchen inspection, which is unusual among no-cap states.

Zoning / home occupation

Conditional. NC home processor program requires verification with local county/city planning that a food business is permitted at the residence. Onslow County Planning and Jacksonville City may require a home occupation permit. Contact Onslow County Planning or City of Jacksonville Planning.

Health

Yes. Initial inspection arranged by NCDA&CS 8-12 weeks after application. Annual re-inspection required.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

NC home processors may sell to retail stores, restaurants, and directly to consumers. Verify local zoning for home pickup.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

NCDA or the local health department, depending on the food. North Carolina home processors register with NCDA. A commissary used as a food service kitchen is typically permitted by the local health department; a food manufacturing plant is NCDA. Ask the kitchen which license they operate under.
