State

Oklahoma registration: No. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Sales are permitted on site, by delivery, at farmers markets, through cooperatives, and through membership-based buying clubs. The Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food, and Forestry may promulgate rules to allow sales at other locations or by other means. Zoning / home occupation

Yes. City of Bartlesville requires a Home Occupation License in addition to a Business License for home-based businesses within city limits. Washington County's Metropolitan Planning Area zoning regulations (for unincorporated areas within 3 miles of Bartlesville city limits or 0.5 miles of US Hwy 75) also contain home occupation provisions. State law (§5-4.6) allows counties to enact ordinances regulating home food establishments as long as they do not conflict with or restrict the Homemade Food Freedom Act.

Health

No. No inspection required. ODAFF may request proof of food safety training completion, verify gross sales, and ensure labeling compliance upon complaint.

Business license

Yes

Pickup / delivery

Sales allowed on-site, by delivery, at farmers markets, through cooperatives, and through membership-based buying clubs. Non-TCS foods may also be sold through third-party vendors (retail/grocery stores, farm stands, farmers markets, craft fairs) if vendor displays required allergen/unlicensed disclosure placard.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

A commissary is a food-service license, not Food Freedom. Oklahoma Homemade Food Freedom is a home path. A commissary is a food establishment licensed by the State Department of Health.
