Where to file

State

Oregon registration: Depends. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Direct sales to end users are permitted in any manner including online, mail, and at events. Sales to retailers (including coffee shops but not restaurants) are permitted if the retailer agrees to store/display the foods separately and clearly indicate they are homemade and not prepared in an inspected food establishment. Sales to institutions (restaurants, schools, hospitals, caterers, day care centers, nursing homes, correctional facilities) are prohibited. A Domestic Kitchen Bakery License (~$50/year) is required for establishments wishing to sell to retailers under licensed status rather than using the residential-dwelling exemption. The department may provide a unique identification number for use on labels. Annual records must be maintained for 3 years.

Zoning / home occupation

Varies. Coos County is a coastal Oregon county (Coquille is county seat; Coos Bay is largest city). Local zoning may apply for home-based businesses. Contact Coos County Planning at (541) 396-7770.

Health

No. No routine inspection for direct sales; retail store channel requires Domestic Kitchen Bakery License with inspection

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct sales to end users via any channel (home, online, mail, events) permitted. Sales to institutions (caterers, schools, day care, hospitals, nursing homes, restaurants) prohibited under residential dwelling classification.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

ODA licenses food establishments. Oregon residential-dwelling exemption is a home path. A commissary or licensed domestic kitchen bakery is an ODA food establishment.
