Where to file

State

Oregon registration: Depends. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Direct sales to end users are permitted in any manner including online, mail, and at events. Sales to retailers (including coffee shops but not restaurants) are permitted if the retailer agrees to store/display the foods separately and clearly indicate they are homemade and not prepared in an inspected food establishment. Sales to institutions (restaurants, schools, hospitals, caterers, day care centers, nursing homes, correctional facilities) are prohibited. A Domestic Kitchen Bakery License (~$50/year) is required for establishments wishing to sell to retailers under licensed status rather than using the residential-dwelling exemption. The department may provide a unique identification number for use on labels. Annual records must be maintained for 3 years.

Zoning / home occupation

Varies. No specific Douglas County (OR) home occupation permit requirements found for cottage food. Oregon state law does not require local permits for residential dwelling food establishments. Douglas County unincorporated areas or city of Roseburg may have home occupation zoning requirements. Contact Douglas County Planning or Roseburg city planning.

Health

No. No routine inspections for residential dwelling food establishments. Complaint-driven investigation by Oregon Department of Agriculture possible.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Oregon allows direct sales at home, online, mail, and events. Retail sales to stores permitted under specific conditions (with Domestic Kitchen Bakery License ~$50/year). No sales to institutions (caterers, schools, day care, hospitals, nursing homes, correctional facilities, or restaurants). $50,000 annual cap.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

ODA licenses food establishments. Oregon residential-dwelling exemption is a home path. A commissary or licensed domestic kitchen bakery is an ODA food establishment.
