Where to file

State

Pennsylvania registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: Yes. Registration includes sales direct from the production site including internet sales. However, a separate Retail Food Facility License may be required for sales at events or Farmers Markets. Businesses aiming to sell across state lines might also need FDA registration. The registration covers home-based operations in residential kitchens as well as residential-style kitchens in alternate locations such as churches, fire halls, or remodeled garages. Not available in Philadelphia County.

Zoning / home occupation

Conditional. Gettysburg and Adams County municipalities may have home occupation zoning requirements. Adams County is a tourist/agricultural county near the Gettysburg battlefield. No specific Adams County cottage food ordinance identified beyond the state LFE framework.

Health

Yes. Initial on-site inspection required before registration is issued. Subsequent routine inspections apply. Submit application at least 60 days before operating.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct-to-consumer and some indirect sales permitted. Online sales and delivery allowed. Sales to retail establishments conditionally permitted.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

PDA Limited Food Establishment is still not a retail commissary. Pennsylvania Limited Food Establishment covers certain residential-style kitchens. A retail commissary or shared kitchen typically needs a Retail Food Facility license as well. Ask PDA and the local health department.

Local health office we have on file: <https://www.adamscounty.gov>

This file is the home-kitchen path. A rented kitchen uses a different permit. Ask the kitchen manager which license they expect, then call the local health office.
