Where to file

State

South Dakota registration: No. Routine kitchen inspection: No. The statute does not restrict sales to direct-to-consumer channels only. Items are subject to sales tax. Local governments (counties, townships, municipalities) may not pass ordinances restricting, prohibiting, or imposing licensure on homemade food item sales under SDCL §34-18-1 definitions.

Statute: SDCL §34-18-35

Zoning / home occupation

No. No state-level permit or registration required for cottage food production under SDCL §34-18-35. State law preempts county/municipal restrictions. Day County has no identified separate home occupation permit requirement for cottage food operations compliant with state law. A general business license from Webster or Day County may be required for any commercial activity, but is not specific to cottage food.

Health

No. No routine inspection required. The SD Department of Health may respond to foodborne illness complaints but does not conduct pre-operational inspections for cottage food producers.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct and indirect sales both permitted. Allowed channels include home pickup, farmers markets, roadside stands, online sales, in-state shipping, and retail consignment. No sales cap under state law.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

DOH licenses food service. South Dakota cottage food is a home path. A commissary is a food service establishment licensed by the Department of Health.
