HOW THIS PLACE WORKS

Texas does not let counties charge a cottage-food permit. State law says a local government may not require a permit, license, or fee for a cottage food production operation. The leftover local steps are usually city zoning, a DBA (assumed name) at the county clerk, and sales tax if your products are taxable. This packet shows the state DSHS page for the food rules.

Where to file

State

Texas registration: No. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Sales must be made directly to consumers or to a 'cottage food vendor' (a new category created by SB 541 in 2025 – a person with a contractual relationship who sells on behalf of the cottage food operation to consumers in-state). Cottage food products may not be sold as ingredients to a food service establishment. No retail grocery store or wholesale sales permitted under the pre-2025 framework; SB 541 (2025) adds the cottage food vendor intermediary option. Products must be delivered to consumer or vendor at point of sale or consumer-designated location.

Zoning / home occupation

Varies by city. No Tarrant County-level home occupation permit requirement for unincorporated areas. Cities within Tarrant County (Fort Worth, Arlington, etc.) have their own home occupation and zoning requirements. Arlington requires health permits for food businesses generally but cottage food operations are exempt under state law.

Health

No. Health departments may act only to prevent an immediate and serious threat to human life or health. No routine or complaint-driven county inspection authority for CFPOs.

Pickup / delivery

State law allows direct and indirect sales, online sales with in-person/household delivery, and cottage food vendor intermediaries (SB 541, 2025). Annual gross income cap $150,000. Starting Sept 2025, operators selling TCS foods must register with DSHS.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

DSHS does not let locals permit cottage food. A commissary is different. Texas cottage food is exempt from food-establishment rules. A commissary, restaurant, or shared kitchen is a retail food establishment permitted by the local health department or DSHS.

Local health office we have on file: <https://www.tarrantcounty.com/en/public-health.html>

This file is the home-kitchen path. A rented kitchen uses a different permit. Ask the kitchen manager which license they expect, then call the local health office.
