HOW THIS PLACE WORKS

Texas does not let counties charge a cottage-food permit. State law says a local government may not require a permit, license, or fee for a cottage food production operation. The leftover local steps are usually city zoning, a DBA (assumed name) at the county clerk, and sales tax if your products are taxable. This packet shows the state DSHS page for the food rules.

Where to file

State

Texas registration: No. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Sales must be made directly to consumers or to a 'cottage food vendor' (a new category created by SB 541 in 2025 – a person with a contractual relationship who sells on behalf of the cottage food operation to consumers in-state). Cottage food products may not be sold as ingredients to a food service establishment. No retail grocery store or wholesale sales permitted under the pre-2025 framework; SB 541 (2025) adds the cottage food vendor intermediary option. Products must be delivered to consumer or vendor at point of sale or consumer-designated location.

Zoning / home occupation

Conditional. Webb County and City of Laredo may require a home occupation permit or general business license under local zoning. Texas cottage food law does not preempt local zoning. Producers in Laredo should check with the City of Laredo Development Services.

Health

No. Health department may only act to prevent immediate/serious threat to human life; no routine inspection authority

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct and limited indirect sales allowed. May sell at farmers markets, online, home delivery. Third-party delivery platforms allowed. Wholesale to distributors not permitted. Nonprofits may also operate under cottage food framework (SB 541, 2025).

If you rent a commissary kitchen

DSHS does not let locals permit cottage food. A commissary is different. Texas cottage food is exempt from food-establishment rules. A commissary, restaurant, or shared kitchen is a retail food establishment permitted by the local health department or DSHS.
