Where to file

State

Utah registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Registered cottage food operations may sell through various channels. The Utah Department of Agriculture and Food (UDAF) issues registration; local health departments do not have jurisdiction to regulate compliant cottage food operations except to investigate foodborne illness outbreaks. The state also has a separate Home Consumption and Homemade Food Act (Utah Code Title 4, Chapter 5A) that allows unregistered sales of certain homemade foods with a business license, but only at direct-to-sale farmers markets or direct-to-sale locations with appropriate signage. Food service establishments may not use cottage food products as ingredients in food served to the public.

Zoning / home occupation

Varies. Box Elder County may have home occupation zoning requirements. Local health departments have no jurisdiction over compliant UDAF-registered operations. Operators should check with Box Elder County for land-use requirements.

Health

No. No routine or complaint-only inspection authority for registered cottage food operations.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct and indirect sales permitted. Farmers markets, home pickup, retail stores, online, and delivery all allowed under UDAF registration.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

UDAF cottage food is not a food-service permit. Utah cottage food is a UDAF registration. A commissary is a food establishment permitted by the local health department.
