Where to file

State

Utah registration: Yes. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Registered cottage food operations may sell through various channels. The Utah Department of Agriculture and Food (UDAF) issues registration; local health departments do not have jurisdiction to regulate compliant cottage food operations except to investigate foodborne illness outbreaks. The state also has a separate Home Consumption and Homemade Food Act (Utah Code Title 4, Chapter 5A) that allows unregistered sales of certain homemade foods with a business license, but only at direct-to-sale farmers markets or direct-to-sale locations with appropriate signage. Food service establishments may not use cottage food products as ingredients in food served to the public.

Zoning / home occupation

Yes. Garfield County is subject to Utah state law under Utah Code §4-5-501, which requires UDAF registration and a food handler's permit. Utah state law explicitly prohibits local governments from imposing additional requirements on compliant registered cottage food operations. No county-specific ordinance was found that restricts cottage food beyond state law. Sellers should contact the Garfield County planning or licensing office for any local business licensing requirements.

Health

No. No inspection required; complaint-based only for registered operations.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

Direct sales at home, farmers markets, events, and online sales permitted. Indirect/wholesale sales also allowed under UDAF registration. No sales cap.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

UDAF cottage food is not a food-service permit. Utah cottage food is a UDAF registration. A commissary is a food establishment permitted by the local health department.
