Where to file

State

Wyoming registration: No. Routine kitchen inspection: No. Wyoming's Food Freedom Act allows considerably broader indirect sales than most states. Non-potentially hazardous foods, eggs, and dairy products may be sold through third-party vendors (retail shops, grocery stores) as long as the sale complies with the Act. The third-party seller must inform consumers that the food is not certified, licensed, or inspected, and non-potentially hazardous foods must be displayed separately from licensed products with a label stating 'this food was made in a home kitchen, is not regulated or inspected and may contain allergens.' Potentially hazardous homemade foods (except eggs/dairy) must be sold by the producer or designated agent only. A 'designated agent' may also facilitate transactions including marketing, transport, storage, and delivery without taking ownership of the product.

Zoning / home occupation

Conditional. Laramie County and the City of Cheyenne may have home occupation zoning requirements. Wyoming Food Freedom Act is state-level and does not preempt local zoning rules for home business operations. No specific Laramie County cottage food ordinance identified.

Health

No. No routine inspections. Wyoming Food Freedom Act exempts producers from all food establishment licensing.

Business license

Varies

Pickup / delivery

All sales channels permitted for non-TCS foods including retail/third-party. TCS homemade foods must be sold by producer or designated agent directly to informed end consumer. In-state only. $250,000 annual revenue cap and 250,000-unit production cap.

If you rent a commissary kitchen

Food Freedom is a home path. A commissary is a food establishment. Wyoming Food Freedom covers homemade food sold under that Act. A commissary used as a food establishment is licensed by the local health department.
